

2009 Community Grant Recipients

Greene Land Trust (Coxsackie, NY)

Environmental Education/Historic Preservation – Restoration of the 18th century farmhouse Willows at Brandow's Point

Housatonic Valley Association (Cornwall Bridge, CT)

Environmental Enhancement & Education – Scientific assessment of the health of the Swamp River (Dover Plains, NY) through water quality monitoring

Naromi Land Trust (Sherman, CT)

Environmental Education/Historic Preservation – Restoration of Babbling Brook Farm, a community farm

Town of Duaneburg, NY

Environmental Enhancement/Passive Recreation – Enhancements to landscaping and handicap accessibility at the Shafer Memorial Park pavilion

Town of Norway, NY

Environmental Enhancement/Passive Recreation – Installation of a gazebo and landscaping to enhance the Town Square

Town of Waddington, NY

Environmental Enhancement/Passive Recreation – Installation of a gazebo and associated landscaping at the main four corners park

Trout Unlimited, Candlewood Valley Chapter (Danbury, CT)

Environmental Education – Creation of an educational film on water resources using Newtown as a case-study to illustrate how individuals and groups can achieve results

Tug Hill Tomorrow Land Trust (Watertown, NY)

Environmental Enhancement & Education– Replacement of interpretive signage along Trenton Greenbelt trail system

Tug Hill Tomorrow Land Trust (Watertown, NY)

Environmental Education – Production of a wildlife brochure to be used as a tool for local planners and communities in the Tug Hill/Northern Oneida County area

Village of Hermon, NY

Passive Recreation – Enhancement of a town park including installation of a portable skating rink

Newtown Forest Association (Newton, CT)

Environmental Enhancement – Installation of a beaver-deceiver piping system to allow ecosystem at Cavanaugh Pond to sustain a healthy beaver population while preventing flooding