

Iroquois Gas Transmission System is proud to support its pipeline host communities in their efforts to alleviate food insecurity. With a great understanding of the increased need for assistance due to the Covid-19 health epidemic, Iroquois has donated $50,000 collectively to the following organizations that serve our communities:

